

Can I Remove Myself from the Class Actions?

If you do not want to participate in the class actions, you can opt-out if you meet certain conditions as outlined below. Please note that the complete class definitions for Brazeau, Reddock and Gallone are found in the class actions Protocol.

You can opt out if:

Category 1. You were first placed in administrative segregation in a federal correctional institution for any length of time after December 12, 2016 and you have not previously had an opportunity to opt out.

AND

You were diagnosed by a medical doctor with a mental disorder or a borderline personality disorder prior or during your incarceration

AND

You suffer(ed) serious impairment as a result of your disorder and reported such to Correctional Service of Canada (CSC).

OR

Category 2. You do not fall within category one

AND

You were first placed in administrative segregation in a federal correctional institution for 16 consecutive days or more after December 12, 2016 and you have not previously had an opportunity to opt out.

What is the Consequence of Opting-Out?

When you opt-out, you lose your right to claim and/or receive any money through the class actions.

Is Opting-Out Final?

Yes, opting-out is a final decision that cannot be undone.

How do I Opt-Out?

In order to properly opt-out, you must prepare and submit a written letter (called an "Opt-Out Election Letter") to the Claims Administrator identified below.

The Opt-Out Election Letter:

(a) must contain a statement of intention to opt out of the class actions by you or a person authorized to bind you;

(b) must outline your full name, Finger Print Section ("FPS"), address, telephone number and/or email address (if available);

(c) must include the date and your signature; and

(d) may contain a statement of your reason for opting out.

The Claims Administrator must receive your Opt-Out Election Letter by no later than October 7, 2021 (“Opt-Out Deadline”).

Opt-Out Election Letters must be sent to:

Federal Segregation Class Action Claims Administrator

P.O. Box 507 STN B Ottawa ON K1P 5P6

Or

Email: info@SegregationClassActionFederal.ca

Or

Fax: 1-866-262-0816

An Opt-Out Election Letter that does not contain all of the required information or is received after the Opt-Out Deadline will not be valid.
